“United Lake to Lake”

The Alnwick/Haldimand Fire Department is seeking both First Class and Recruit Volunteer Firefighters.

The Fire Department is an on-call 24/7 Part Time Fire Service,

The Fire Department operates out of three fire stations located in Grafton, Centreton and Roseneath with a total of 33 Firefighters, 7 Captains, 3 District Chiefs, 1 Deputy Chief of Fire Prevention, 1 Deputy Chief, 1 Administrative Assistant and the Fire Chief.

In 2021, the department responded to 352 emergency calls relating to fires, rescues, motor vehicle accidents, and emergency medical calls.

First Class fighters must have both NFPA 1001 1 and 2 and be able to prove a minimum of 5 years Firefighting experience.

Recruit Firefighters must demonstrate an ability to serve the municipality for a period of time. Pre-Service Fire Training will be provided for all successful Recruit Firefighters. An employment contract will be developed as part of this position.

All Alnwick Haldimand Firefighters are expected to participate in on-going Fire Department activities throughout the year.

With the demands and expectations placed on a Firefighter, the position requires commitment, dedication, compassion and above all a desire to serve your community. The demands can be taxing, both physically and emotionally, but through an outstanding team atmosphere anything can be accomplished.

This hiring process will close on September 30, 2022.

We look forward to your application,

Dave Dawson
